

Concerning the proposal to create an amateur band from 5250 kHz to 5400 kHz, I believe that a sub-band should be created for the narrow band digital modes of operation to protect these operations from the wider modes of operation and to lessen interference for all of the operators of the band.